5 Ways to Prepare & Optimize Your Website for the Holidays

The holidays aren't over yet and it's not too late to get your website in the mood for some holiday cheer. The holidays are a great time to freshen up your website for any newcomers and create a new fun look for your faithful and returning online visitors. The appearance of your website isn't the only thing to worry about this holiday season, with the increase of traffic and online shopping, it's important to optimize your website for the increase in traffic most businesses experience this time of year.

Why Is No One Reading My Blogs? 10 Tips to Get Your Blog Views

As we have heard many times over the past few years, "Content is King", meaning that content is key in growing your audience, and helps you play the long game in marketing.

A good way to create content for your website is to create a blog. A blog is a fantastic addition to your site, as it lets you continually add content, with each blog bringing the chance of new eyes on your work or business.

However, a blog without views doesn't do very much for a website.
